

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 6, 2022

HPC Statement in Memory of Dr. Frank Nothaft

Washington, D.C. – The Housing Policy Council (HPC) released the following statement in memory of Dr. Frank Nothaft who served as the Chief Economist for CoreLogic, a Housing Policy Council member company:

“The Housing Policy Council team is heartbroken to learn of the sudden passing of longtime CoreLogic Chief Economist, Dr. Frank Nothaft. We are keeping Frank’s family, friends, loved ones, and colleagues in our thoughts at this difficult time,” said Ed DeMarco, President of the Housing Policy Council. “It was clear to everyone who worked with Frank that he was an outstanding economist but his exceptionally engaging style and plain-English explanations also kept him in high-demand as a speaker and public commentator. In the more than two decades that I have known him, however, I have probably most appreciated his genuine warmth and friendliness. Frank was an all-around wonderful human being. He will be missed.”

###

About HPC

The Housing Policy Council is a trade association comprised of the leading national mortgage lenders and servicers, mortgage and title insurers, and technology and data companies. Our interest is in the safety and soundness of the housing finance system, the equitable and consistent regulatory treatment of all market participants, and the promotion of lending practices that create sustainable homeownership opportunities in support of vibrant communities and long-term wealth-building for families. For more information, visit www.housingpolicycouncil.org.

Contact: Sheryl.pardo@housingpolicycouncil.org

Press Inquiries: Media@housingpolicycouncil.org